Summer Reading Prizes

This summer, we are inviting all ages to track your reading however you'd like and turn in your reading log for prizes by the end of August. You may download a reading log from the library's website, create your own unique reading challenge, or ask us to mail one to you. Families are welcome to share reading logs. Pre-readers can track the days that someone sings or reads with them. All ages can join in the fun and receive a prize!

When finished with your reading log, bring it to the library. For kids and teens, we'll meet you outside the library with a free book and a prize bag. We're currently available Monday-Saturday 9-5:30pm to hand out prizes. Adults can simply return their reading log in the book drop or mail it to be entered in the end of summer prize drawings, and we'll contact you if you've won a prize.
